

Messages of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Message of August 25, 2008 "Dear children! Also today I call you to personal conversion. You be those who will convert and, with your life, will witness, love, forgive and bring the joy of the Risen One into this world, where my Son died and where people do not feel a need to seek Him and to discover Him in their lives. You adore Him, and may your hope be hope to those hearts who do not have Jesus. Thank you for having responded to my call."

Message of September 25, 2007 "Dear children! May your life, anew, be a decision for peace. Be joyful carriers of peace and do not forget that you live in a time of grace, in which God gives you great graces through my presence. Do not close yourselves, little children, but make good use of this time and seek the gift of peace and love for your life so that you may become witnesses to others. I bless you with my motherly blessing. Thank you for having responded to my call."

The Ideal Parish Community

After his devotion and love for Jesus Christ and the Mass, the pastor is to promote a true and authentic devotion to Mary amongst his parishioners. His spiritual children have a right to know that they possess a heavenly mother who loves and protects them. He himself should have a great zeal and devotion to Our Lady. There is no better way to bring his flock to Jesus than through the intercession of the Mother of God. He should be solicitous to celebrate her feast days and encourage the faithful to go to her for comfort and strength. The future issues of Our Mother Queen of Peace Times will give the history and theme of many different Marian feasts.

Our Lady of America

Warning and Grace for the United States

In April 1957, Our Lady said, "Unless my children reform their lives, they will suffer great persecution. If man himself will not take upon himself the penance necessary to atone for his sins and those of others, God in His justice will have to send upon him the punishment necessary to atone for his transgressions."

In addition to leading the world to purity, the United States is called to lead it to peace. On November 22, 1980, Our Lady told Sister Mildred: "Beloved daughter, the United States is a small one among nations, yet has it not been said that 'a little child shall lead them?' It is the United States that is to lead the world to peace, the peace of Christ, the peace that He brought with Him from heaven in His birth as man in the little town of Bethlehem. Dear child, unless the United States accepts and carries out faithfully the mandate given to it by heaven to lead the world to peace, there will come upon it and all nations a great havoc of war and incredible suffering. If, however, the United States is faithful to this mandate from heaven and yet fails in the pursuit of peace because the rest of the world will not accept or co-operate, then the United States will not be burdened with the punishment about to fall."

Our Lady of America

Today, with wars, international terrorism, nuclear threats and natural disasters, Our Lady of America's messages for reformation, purity, peace and prayer are more urgent than ever and we are in great need of her protection. The time is short to pray and sacrifice for world peace. It is evident that the forces of evil are enveloping the world. Their hatred, however, is now particularly focused on the United States because of the Divine Mandate given to it to lead the world to purity and peace.

"My child, I entrust you with this message that you must make known to my children in AMERICA. I wish it to be the country dedicated to my purity. The wonders I will work will be the wonders of the soul. They must have faith and believe firmly in my love for them. I desire that they be the children of my Pure Heart. I desire, through my children in AMERICA to further the cause of faith and purity among peoples and nations. Let them come with confidence and simplicity, and I, their Mother, will teach them to become pure like to my Heart that their own hearts may be more pleasing to the Heart of my Son."

Abortion Is Murder. Are You Voting?

To assist in abortion is murder. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, Article: Abortion #2272... "Formal cooperation in an abortion...A person who procures a completed abortion incurs excommunication, latae sententiae." The church does not thereby intend to restrict the scope of mercy. Rather, she makes clear the gravity of the crime committed, the irreparable harm done to the innocent who is put to death, as well as to the parents and the whole of society."

Bishop Robert Basa from Oregon: "After much discussion at the US Bishops' Conference using "proportionate reasoning, it would be a mortal sin to vote for a pro-abortion candidate."
Reported by John-Henry Westin of Lifesite News. Sept. 8, 2008 – Bridegroom Press, Get the Catholic Perspective.

To receive the sacraments after committing this offense is sacrilegious and gives great scandal to the Holy Body of Christ, the Church (Queen of Peace Editorial).

Why So Many Homosexuals Came Into the Church

By Dr. Alice Von Hildebrand, Catholic philosopher, theologian and author
For the last few years, the media have had a field day informing the public of the scandalous immoralities committed by priests and religious in the Catholic Church. She is clearly "hypocritical," harboring men who under the pretext of serving God, ruin the lives of young boys confided to their care. The public – this great lover of scandals – lapped up the revolting details with delight and eagerness. Anti-Catholics were given an ideal opportunity to justify their rejection of papists. Did they not know all along that the Catholic Church was the Whore of Babylon? Faithful Catholics were stunned. How could this have happened?

At first, this litany of abuses seemed to be limited to a couple of dioceses, but it is now a sad fact that the disease is endemic and has also affected religious orders which, by the strictness of their Rule, seemed to preclude the very possibility of such abominations. Lawsuits followed lawsuits. Dioceses went bankrupt and had to sell Church property in order to pay the enormous compensations required by the victims' lawyers, as if money could ever heal wounds. The picture is so dark that upon coming to the United States this April, our Holy Father felt obliged to make a public apology and personally meet some of the victims.

Much light has been shed on this dramatic situation in Michael Rose's book, "GoodBye! Good Men." His key thesis is that some "priests" in charge of selecting candidates for the priesthood or religious life eliminated those whose outlook on life was evaluated as "antiquated, intolerant or narrow-minded."

Psychological tests revealed these deficiencies, and such applicants were told that they clearly had no vocation. Those alone whose views were in harmony with what they called "the spirit of Vatican II" (whatever that means) was accepted and some were promoted to key positions in the Church and in religious orders.

Surprisingly enough, in spite of endless documents and commentaries on this scandal, a key factor has, it seems to me, not been properly highlighted: namely a systematic, carefully orchestrated infiltration of evil men into Catholic seminaries and religious orders. That this infiltration is not a rumor but a fact has been testified to by Bella Dodd. Why is her name so rarely mentioned by those concerned about the scandals in the Church? (Michael Rose mentioned her briefly.)

Bella Dodd was the daughter of Italian immigrants and came to the United States when she was about six years old. A brilliant student, she went to Hunter College where the germ of communism was injected into her. She was a witness to the belief that capitalism was the root of all evils and that communism would bring peace and fairness into a world dominated by the most revolting injustice. Upon graduating, she went to Columbia University where she received her doctorate in political science. She was immediately appointed at Hunter College. Talented, charismatic, ardently devoted to her views, she “converted” many of her students to communism (see her book, “School of Darkness”).

For a while, Dodd divided her time between her professional work and the Communist Party. But the task became so demanding that she did not get her sleep and freely gave up her tenure to devote herself totally to the “noble mission” of creating a paradise for the workers. She was convinced that she had a duty to help save the world. She was so indoctrinated that it took her close to 20 years to open her eyes to the true nature of communism. The awakening was brutal: as she rose in the “hierarchy,” circumstances made her realize that the whole thing was a lie. The ceiling seemed to crash over her head.

How could she have been so blind for so long? She realized with luminous clarity that the Communist Party wanted power. It was for her a nightmare to realize that she had devoted many years of her life and energy to serving the devil.

God in His mercy led Dodd to Archbishop Fulton Sheen. Raised a Catholic, she had abandoned the faith in her youth. She went to confession, and reentered the Church, humbled and repentant. She revealed to Archbishop Sheen that the special mission confided to her in the Communist Party was to implement a devilish order of Stalin - to infiltrate the Catholic Church with men who had neither faith nor morals. It should be clear that the candidates that fit the bill best were those who clearly had no attraction for the fair sex. Given her exceptional talents, Dodd succeeded beyond expectation and brought hundreds of such men into seminaries. Horrified by her “crime,” she told Archbishop Sheen that she wanted to enter the most severe penitential order, and hoped to pay by penance and sacrifice some of her debt.

His answer was categorical: “No, Bella, your mission is to open the eyes of Americans to the horror of communism.” (This was in 1949 or 1950, the honeymoon period between the USSR and the United States at a time shortly after the Allies betrayed half of Europe and delivered it into Stalin’s murderous hands – one of the most abominable political crimes in history.) In the 1960s Bella Dodd gave a well-attended talk in California in which she revealed to a shattered public how successfully she had implemented Stalin’s diabolical plans.

These men (we might even fear that some of them had fake baptismal certificates) became “priests,” managed to occupy key positions in the welcoming of candidates of the same ilk. At the same time they rejected those who were clearly stuck in the past, were narrow-minded, dogmatic, and intolerant in their views and clearly incapable of serving the needs of “modern man.”

This tragic situation gives us a key to what has happened, and is still happening. No doubt, many culprits have been and are protected; their crimes have been covered up. Indeed, the candidates that Bella Dodd picked had “neither faith nor morals.” This is another facet of the apocalyptic drama we are witnessing, and which should be more explicitly mentioned. Faith and morals cannot be separated. The enemy is within. Those desperately hoping to cleanse the Church face a task of such magnitude and complexity that only supernatural wisdom and personal holiness can solve the problem. When an organism is gravely ill, it is not easy to know where to operate.

Let us face the situation. On the one hand, we know by faith that the gates of hell shall not prevail. On the other, we must face the terrible reality that there may be more than one Judas in the Church, some clearly in positions of power.

We, the simple people in the pews, should pray, pray, pray and make sacrifices, recalling that at the end of time, as St. John tells us, the diabolical attacks will increase in violence “because the Evil One is running out of time.” The sky is dark but if we are faithful, the Light of Christ will overcome this terrible time during which “even the elect will be threatened by confusion.” The duel between the Evil One and the Woman has already started. This is why Satan is waging war against maternity, but he will be defeated and his head will be crushed. The battle is fearful; the outcome is certain.

How deeply meaningful and how timely that our Holy Father wrote an encyclical on hope, the virtue we desperately need today.

Our Holy Mother’s Love for Us

Our Mother Queen of Peace is a coalition of all Marian apparitions including those not yet approved, as long as the authority of the church gives permission to allow such devotion. We manifest our unconditional submission to the final and official judgment of the Magisterium of the Church.

We chose the title Mother for our group and newsletter because the Blessed Virgin Mary has said many times in private revelations that of all the titles given to her, the one she loves the most is “Mother.” The Blessed Virgin is the spiritual Mother of all mankind. She was given this title at the foot of the Cross when Her Son said, “There is your Mother,” Jn. 19:28. This fulfills the prophecy in Genesis 3:15 “...I will put enmity between you and the Woman and between your offspring and hers ...”

St. Alphonsus Ligouri said that if we add up the love of all mothers who ever lived for their children, until the end of the world, it would not add up to the love Our Holy Mother has for each and every one of us. She has often said, “If you knew how much I love you, you would cry.”

The future issues of Our Mother Queen of Peace Times will give the history and theme of the list put together by Fr. Anthony Mellace:
