All Problems Are Solved by Praying the Holy Rosary

Pope John Paul II & Sister Lucia

In an interview with Father Fuentes, December 26, 1957, Sister Lucia (seer at Fatima), said:

"Look, Father, the Most Holy Virgin in these last times in which we live has given new efficacy in the recitation of the Rosary. She had given this efficacy to such an extent that there is no problem - no matter how difficult it is, whether temporal or above all spiritual, in the personal life and of each one of us, of our families, of the families in the world, or of the religious communities, or

Messages of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Medjugorje

Message of September 25, 2009 "Message of September 25, 2009 "Dear children! With joy, persistently work on your conversion. Offer all your joys and sorrows to my Immaculate Heart that I may lead you all to my most beloved Son, so that you may find joy in His Heart. I am with you to instruct you and to lead you towards eternity. Thank you for having responded to my call."

even of peoples and nations - that cannot be solved by the Rosary. There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot solve by the prayer of the holy Rosary. With the holy Rosary, we will save ourselves. We will sanctify ourselves. We will console our Lord and obtain the salvation of many souls."

After the holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the Rosary is what unites us with God by the riches of its prayers and it is what best fosters the growth of faith, hope and charity,"

Sister Lucia of Fatima (Do not pray the Rosary during Mass; before or after is just fine.)

"We do not hesitate to affirm publicly that we put great confidence in the holy Rosary for the healing of evils which affect our times." Pope Pius XII

"My children, help me combat the evils of the Church and of society, not with the sword but with the Rosary."

Pope Pius IX

"Love the Madonna and pray the Rosary, for her Rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today." Saint Padre Pio

"When the holy Rosary is well said, it gives Jesus and Mary more glory and is more meritorious than any other prayer." St. Louis de Montfort

"The Rosary is the most powerful weapon to touch the Heart of Jesus, our Redeemer, who so loves His mother."

St. Louis de Montfort

"The Rosary is a treasure of graces." Pope Paul V

"Dear brothers and sisters, recite the Rosary every day. I earnestly urge pastors to pray the Rosary and to teach people in their Christian communities how to pray it."

Pope John Paul II

(Ecumenical) "Oh, Mary, God has chosen you and purified you, and elected you above all women of the earth."

The Koran

"The Rosary is a wonderful instrument for the destruction of sin, the recovery of God's grace and the advancement of His glory." Pope Gregory XII

"I consider nothing better or more opportune than to recommend and promote this method of prayer so that by the Rosary, and as a result of it frequent consideration of the mysteries of salvation, faith may be made more alive in the hearts of men, and the sacred fire of prayer may enkindled anew and may glow as a pledge of peace, or moral elevation and prosperity." Pope Leo XII

"Among all the devotions approved by the Church, none has been favored by so many miracles as the devotion of the most holy Rosary." Pope Pius IX

"The great power of the Rosary lies in this, that it makes the Creed into prayer; of course, the Creed is in some sense a prayer and the great act of homage to God; but the Rosary gives us the great truths of His life and death to mediate upon, and brings them nearer to our hearts."

Cardinal Newman

"Spread the Rosary...it puts all who have trust in it into communication with Our Lady."

Pope Paul VI

"The Rosary is the scourge of the devil!" Pope Adrian VI

"Mary is the ladder of heaven; for by Mary, God descends from heaven into the world, that by her, men might ascend from Earth to Heaven." St. Fulgentius

Supreme Court Justice Speaks on Abortion

In a recent interview with Emily Brazelton of the New York Times Magazine, U.S. Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg said she understood that the 1973 court decision in Roe v. Wade was intended to eliminate undesirables in the country or, in her words, “populations we don’t want to have too many of.”

Brazelton asked Justice Ginsburg what she would “want to accomplish in a future feminist legal agenda.”

Her immediate response was, “Reproductive choice has to be straightened out. There will never be a woman of means without choice anymore. The states that had changed their abortion laws before Roe [to make abortion legal] are not going to change back. So we have a policy that affects only poor women, and it can never be otherwise, and I don’t know why this hasn’t been said more often.”

The follow-up question was, “Are you talking about the distances some women have to travel because in parts of the country, abortion is essentially unavailable? And also, the lack of Medicaid for abortions for poor women?”

Ginsburg stated, “Yes. Frankly, I had thought that at the time Roe was decided, there was concern about population growth and particularly growth in populations that we don’t want to have too many of.” www.worldnetdaily.com 7/8/09

Joy At All Times

The martyred Archbishop Oscar Romero of San Salvador, slain by an assassin’s bullet while giving a homily at Mass, once wrote, “It is wrong to be sad. Christians cannot be pessimists. Christians must always nourish in their hearts the fullness of joy. Try it, brothers and sister; I have tried it many times and in the darkest moments, when slander and persecution were at their worst: to unite myself intimately with Christ, my friend...It is the deepest joy the heart can have.”

“There is an old saying that the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church. But we hardly ever hear of the joy of the martyrs. It was a contagious joy, and the early Christians, especially, had it in abundance, passing it on from generation to generation.”

Muslims Now Outnumber Catholics

From The Catholic World Report, 6/08

Although Christians are still the world’s largest religious bloc, the world’s Catholics are now outnumbered by Muslims, according to the editor of the Vatican’s statistical yearbook.

Msgr. Vittorio Formenti, who supervises the compilation of demographic figures for the Annuario Pontificio, told L’Osservatore Romano that the latest data, from 2006, show a worldwide population of 1.115 billion Catholics, but 1.322 billion Muslims.

Larger Family Sizes

“For the first time in history, we are not at the top,” Msgr. Formenti told the Vatican newspaper. He noted that the Catholic proportion of the world’s population has held steady in recent years, while the Muslim representation has grown because of the larger family sizes in the Islamic world; Catholic families are having fewer children, he observed.

While the Muslims outnumber Catholics, Christianity – taken as a whole, including Orthodox and Protestant faithful – still represents the world’s largest religious group, with well over two billion believers.

The Annuario Pontificio lists summary data for the Catholic Church, provided by diocesan officials. The figures for the Muslim population are taken from census statistics provided by various national governments. The Annuario, which offers reports on each Catholic diocese in the world, plans to have information on-line, perhaps even before the end of 2009.

Muslim motto: We will win over the whole world by the wombs of our wives.

Declaration: The decree of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, A.A.S. 58, 1186 (Approved by Pope Paul VI on October 14, 1966) states that the Nihil Obstat and Imprimatur are no longer required on publications that deal with private revelations, provided that they contain nothing contrary to faith and morals.
